

Centre for Civil Society

invites applications for

RESEARCHING REALITY

SUMMER RESEARCH INTERNSHIP (MAY-JULY 2007)

Grassroots Research on Public Policy

How does one become a street vendor or start a school or a community radio?
How much does your state government spend on primary education?
How do slum dwellers get water and electricity?
What is the impact of special economic zones and rent control laws?
Can public services be provided privately?
How can we make RTI more effective?
KNOW HOW YOUR SYSTEM WORKS!

"18 young students did not take their summer holidays this year. Instead, they visited branches of Delhi government...they asked themselves how the tasks of government could be done better & with less resources...the result is the neat State of Governance: Delhi Citizen Handbook 2003."
Ashok V Desai (Business World)

The Full-Time Research Internship Offers

- ✓ Training in skills of research, analysis & writing through hands-on projects
- ✓ Chance for publication in newspapers, magazines, & CCS publications. Previous papers have been published in The Economic Times, Business World, The Statesman
- ✓ Monthly stipend and a certificate of successful completion of the program
- ✓ A chance to participate in international seminars
- ✓ Choice of the internship location
- ✓ Open to college students or recent graduates of any discipline

Application Deadline for Summer Program: 7 March 2007

Final selection will be based on an interview. Internship post July 2007 is also offered.

Download the application & read previous research papers at www.ccs.in/internship or contact:

Internship Coordinator, Centre for Civil Society

K-36 Hauz Khas Enclave, New Delhi 110 016

Tel: 011-2653 7456 Fax: 2651 2347 Web: www.ccs.in Email: internship@ccs.in

This program is supported by Sir Ratan Tata Trust under its initiative on Youth and Civil Society