

CALL FOR FILMS FOR SOCIAL CHANGE

Jeevika

South Asia livelihood documentary competition

20-23 July 2007, Delhi

We invite documentary films focusing on Jeevika, capturing the hypocrisy of the system which justifies itself in the name of the poor.

Jeevika is the life and livelihood of entry-level professionals like rickshaw pullers, fishermen and mongers car mechanics... And many more unsung warriors battling the license raj across South Asia. Capture their stories and send them in to us.

Prizes Worth
Rs. 2 Lakh

including support for advocacy campaign based on the film

Last date for Entries
31 May 2007

Entry rules

is open to all filmmakers (professionals & amateur) Entry in any language with english subtitles

Contact Us

via email jeevika@ccs.in or call us on +91 11 2653 7456

For entry form, guidelines & film Ideas, visit www.ccs.in/jeevika

CENTRE FOR CIVIL SOCIETY

K-36 Hauz Khas Enclave, New Delhi 110016, India. Fax: 2651 2347; Web: www.ccs.in