

LAW AND LIBERTY CONFERENCE 2017

Centre for Civil Society in collaboration with Law and Technology Society, NLSIU

DATE – 24th November, 2017
Venue – Allen and Overy Hall, NLSIU

THEME

Perspectives on Liberty in a Digitised India

PANELS

1. Digitising Governance and Public Service Delivery
2. Regulatory Frameworks for Aggregators and Sharing Economy
3. Regulating Data Services and Digital Payments

ROUNDTABLE

Alternatives to Statutory Regulations in Digital Environment
(Technology for Technology)

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

1000 - 1015 hrs	Opening Address
1015 - 1145 hrs	Panel 1 - Digitising Governance and Public Service Delivery
1145-1200	High Tea
1200 - 1330 hrs	Panel 2 - Regulatory Frameworks for Aggregators and Sharing Economy
1330 - 1430 hrs	Networking Lunch
1430 - 1600 hrs	Panel 3 - Regulating Data Services and Digital Payments
1600 - 1615 hrs	Keynote Address
1615 - 1630 hrs	Concluding Remarks
1630-1700	High Tea
1700 - 1830 hrs (Invitation Only)	Round Table on Alternatives to Statutory Regulations in Digital Environment (Technology for Technology)
1900-2100 hrs	Dinner

PARTICIPATION AND AUDIENCE

- 50 Students from NLSIU and other premier academic institutes of India selected through rigorous selection process on the basis of their area of interest and curriculum vitae.
- 20 young professionals from Academics, Civil Society, Business and Industry selected on the basis of relevant experience in the areas of Law, Technology and Society.

PANELISTS

- 5-6 Panelists in each session sharing Legal, Civil Society, Industry, Government and Academic Perspectives